

Healthy Chesapeake is seeking a full-time Culinary Instructor.

Healthy Chesapeake is tasked with developing collaborative responses to community challenges and opportunities relative to population health. One important area of our focus is improving access and utilization of healthy foods. The Healthy Chef Culinary Instructor aids the successful completion of our mission by working closely with the staff and our community partners to increase nutritional and food literacy throughout Chesapeake.

Job duties include, but are not limited to:

- Plan and lead healthy eating cooking and lifestyles classes and demonstrations for mixed ages and skill levels
- Perform cooking and nutrition curriculum research and design and implement educational programs to improve utilization of healthy foods and increase nutritional and food literacy
- Collect data from Healthy Chef events to assess the effectiveness of programs and outcomes, if applicable
- Identify food insecure, or other vulnerable community members, that may be best served by the Healthy Chef program

Successful candidates must possess:

- Associates Degree in Culinary Arts or equivalent experience for a minimum of two years
- Strong food safety background (FSMA training, ServSafe Manager or equivalent)
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to find creative solutions with minimum supervision
- Strong organizational skills, flexibility, multi-tasking, and follow-through capacity
- Occasional evenings and weekend availability

This job description in no way states or implies that these are the only duties to be performed by this employee. The Culinary Instructor will be required to follow any other instructions and to perform any other related duties as assigned. Healthy Chesapeake, Inc. reserves the right to update, revise or change the job description and related duties at any time. Salary commensurate with experience.

Qualified applicants please submit a cover letter, resume, and references to info@healthychesapeake.org. No phone calls, please.
